Greetings Parents and Students,

EOG Testing Proctors Needed: East Cary Middle School is using Volunteer Spot to organize our upcoming needs for EOG Proctors. We are in need of many proctors to make testing run smoothly. Proctors must be registered and cleared by WCPSS to volunteer in the classroom. If you have not already registered as a volunteer, please come into our school or any other WCPSS to sign up to volunteer. Please also ask around to see if any other person can assist and sign up today!

EOG Dates Proctors Needed: Track 1: May 24 –June 2 and Track 2, 3, 4: June 19 – 29

Teacher Appreciation Week: Parents we will continue to celebrate our teachers this week for National Teacher Appreciation Week! Please take a moment to recognize your son/daughter's teacher by completing our Educator on the Rise Recognition form. Your kind words will be shared with each teacher nominated. You can access the form embedded within our announcements or under the announcement icon on our school's website. Educator on the Rise Recognition Form. Let's make sure our teachers know we appreciate their work with our students!

New Student and Parent Informational Night: On behalf of the staff at ECMS, I would like to thank all of the parent volunteers and students who volunteered to help and make our Informational Night for our Rising 6th graders a success on Thursday evening.

School Communication: Please make sure you have responded to the message that was received from WCPSS Communication Department regarding School Messenger Communication.

What's Happening @ ECMS this week:

- Tuesday:5/9- 8th Grade STEM Night-Tracks 2 and 4, Science Olympiad Meeting
- Wednesday:5/10- Imps Wonder Wednesday Fellowship Christian Athletes
- Thursday:5/11-Chess Club Meeting
- Friday:5/12-Track 3-Welcome Back, Track 2-Happy Track Out

We appreciate your continued support of our staff and students at ECMS as we continue to REMIXX learning and teaching for the students at East Cary Middle School.

Please reference our website for additional information on the meetings and events occurring on our campus each week, follow us on Twitter @eastcarymiddle. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns that you would like to report.

Make it a Fantastic Week and Go IMPS!
