Everyone come out to the Auditorium tomorrow night October 20th at 7:00pm so see the Broughton Jazz Band and Honors dance students in their 3rd annual Jazz Fusion Concert. Admission is $5!

This Wednesday PLEASE come out to the Powderpuff games. You will see Sophomores play Freshman and then watch the DOMINATING faculty take on the Seniors and we will finish the night off with Juniors and Seniors battling it out! First game kicks off at 6:30 in the stadium. The kids would LOVE to see their teachers in the stand. We have more than 100 girls participating!

The deadline for summer community service hours (any hours after May 1, 2015) is this Friday, October 23rd, the last day of first quarter.

Attention all WINTER athletes, wristbands for tryouts will be distributed Oct 27 and 28 in the front lobby of the Holliday gym during both lunches and after school until 3pm. You must bring your 2nd semester report card from the 2014-2015 school year and you must have a current up to date physical on file with Coach Cicco. Everyone must have a wristband in order to tryout for their sport. Any questions please see Coach Cicco.

Registration for Duke Splash, a program designed to bring motivated middle and high school students to Duke University for one day each semester to take short, interactive classes designed and taught by passionate Duke Students, is now open. The event will be held on Saturday, November 7th, 2015, and is completely free of charge and lunch will be provided. This year's classes include everything from Graphic Design, Ocean Giants, The Math Behind Music, Applying to College and many more. For more information, visit <http://dukesplash.learning.org>.

The Raleigh College Center and the Wade Edwards Learning Lab want to help you bridge the gap between high school and college, from being a teenager to being an adult. They're offering a series of sessions every 1st and 3rd Mondays from 3:00-4:00pm entitled "Bridge to College – Bridging the Gap Between High School and College. Here's what will be covered:

- Breaking down college applications: Exploring all aspects of the college application (Grades, Test Scores, Transcripts, The Essay, and Extracurricular activities) while placing a large emphasis on helping students make an impressive college essay.
- FAFSA: Helping parents and students understand filling out the FAFSA and receiving all types of aid (scholarships, grants, work-study, and loans)
- Resume: Creating a resume now and seeking out opportunities in college that offers valuable experiences and skills in the workplace after college.
- Making Friends: Friends, parties, clubs, sports! Will I really fit in? The college social scene has so much to offer, and can be scary too.
- Campus Dining: Late night snack runs will get you in trouble! Avoid the "Freshman 15". Food Services offer lots of variety and healthy options for eating and snacking.
- Move-in day: It's only a few weeks away! What do I really need? What can I expect? Who do I ask for help?
- Money: Managing finances is an important skill. Don't get trapped with credit cards. Stay within your budget.

Sign up now. Bring a friend. Plenty of time to take the Activity Bus home.

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS [JUNIORS & SENIORS]

Induction into the SERVICE CLUB is the highest non-academic honor at BHS. Juniors and Seniors who are meeting Community Service requirements are eligible. Applicants are evaluated on their service to the school ONLY. Academic information, such as GPS, is not considered. Applications are available online, in the office, or in POD 2-6. Completed applications are due to Mrs. Childrey in POD 2-6 by Friday, October 30 at 2:30 pm.

Sophomores who would like to learn more about the school may sign up in the Guidance Resource Center [Room 1209] to meet with the rep.

An open invitation to our Broughton family – If you've never been to the WELL, or haven't seen it in a long time, here's your chance! We are having a special open house to celebrate "Lights on After School." Stop by to see us Thursday, October 22nd from 2:30 – 5:30. See the WELL in action and meet some of the awesome organizations that partner with us to serve our kids! See you then!

Broughton students are invited to create a new, original piece of artwork for submission to the 2015-16 PTA-sponsored Reflections contest. Broughton's deadline for submissions is Monday, November 9. Please find entry forms in Mrs. Alden's room in the art department, and please drop your entries off in her room by November 2. See the Wake County PTA's Reflections website for more information about the contest: <http://www.wakepta.org/reflections-program> Five community service hours are awarded to each student who participates in the program from Broughton. This year's theme is "Let Your Imagination Fly". Submissions are judged by the Reflections committee and winners move on to the county PTA level judging. Questions? Susan Baldwin Stevens thefourstevens@gmail.com or Lillian Stokes stokesranse@gmail.com

The Broughton Band, Orchestra and Choir students will once again be selling fruit. The sale starts runs through November 12th! Please see your nearest music student to place an order, or contact me at mharrison3@wcpss.net for more information! We appreciate your continued support of our programs and our students! In addition to the fruit and meats, the Choir is also selling butter braid bread and pecans (16 oz baking, 12 oz salted, 12 oz cinnamon glazed, 12 oz chocolate covered, and pecan rolls). The orchestra is also selling world finest chocolate bars. Thank you for supporting the music students.

The Broughton High School Band will be hosting our 3rd annual Mattress Sale on Saturday, October 31st from 9am-4pm. We will be selling brand new, name brand high quality mattresses at extremely competitive prices! Please come out and check out the selection and bring any friends or family who may also be in the market for a mattress! You can contact your friendly neighborhood band student for a special coupon good for free delivery! All proceeds from the sale go towards helping band students pay for their upcoming trip to Florida, as well as new instruments, music, and masterclasses for our entire band program! Please contact me at mharrison3@wcpss.net with any questions! Thank you in advance for supporting the Broughton Band!

Scholarship Opportunities for Underclassmen

Action For Nature International Young Eco-Hero Awards. Action For Nature [AFN], a non-profit organization, has created the International Young Eco-Hero Awards to recognize and reward the successful individual environmental initiatives of young people ages 8 to 16. The winners receive a cash prize and a special certificate, as well as public recognition on the AFN website and elsewhere. The judges are experts in environmental science, biology and environmental health. Applications will be judged according to originality, difficulty, organization, length of time devoted to the project, use of outside resources, and the impact on the environment. The project must concern environmental health, be self-initiated [not one assigned by a teacher or other adult], and completed or close to completion. To apply, go online at http://www.actionfornature.org/award_application.aspx. January deadline.

*BBG Communications, Inc., offers the Youth Volunteer Scholarship Award, valued at $500, to recognize and reward a student who demonstrated a passion for volunteering, while maintaining a high level of academic achievement. Applicants must have a 3.5+ GPA and must have completed a minimum of 50 hours of volunteer work during the past 2 years. Applicants must also submit an essay on the following topic: Explain in less than 1000 words why you have chosen to volunteer your time with the organization(s) that you have and how your experience has changed your life. Applications can be found by going to <http://www.bbgcommunicationscorp.com>. Deadline: November 29, 2015.

CaptainU $2,000 Student-Athlete Scholarship. CaptainU, the leading college sports recruiting platform, is awarding a $2,000 scholarship every quarter to a top student-athlete looking to play at the next level. In addition to a chance to win a scholarship, you can get noticed by over 16,000 college coaches and use our proven recruiting software to find the college programs that are the right fit for you and make a college team. The $2,000 CaptainU Student-Athlete Scholarship is open to all student-athletes (Freshmen – Seniors + Junior College) who plan to attend a 4 year college. Applicants must be currently enrolled in a high school or junior college, planning to attend a four-year university, and complete a free Captain U Profile. One student will be selected each quarter. Applications will be judged on profile completeness, recruiting activity on CaptainU, and promotion of CaptainU. Winners will be announced on the Facebook fan page. One entry per person. For more information and to apply, visit CaptainU \$2,000 Student-Athlete Scholarship. Deadline: August 31, 2015.

*Applicants for The Don't Text and Drive Scholarship must be a high school freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior or a current or entering college or graduate school student of any level. Home schooled students are also eligible. There is no age limit. You must also be a U.S. citizen or legal resident. Applicants must complete the application form and write a 140-character message about texting while driving. The winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship! The due date for The Don't Text and Drive Scholarship is September 30, 2015, which coincides with September's No Texting while Driving Day. To apply, go online at <http://www.digitalresponsibility.org/dont-text-and-drive-scholarship/>.

*The Doodle 4 Google scholarship is one of their most popular programs from the big G. This scholarship is open to students from Kindergarten to grade 12—students in elementary, middle, and high school are all eligible to apply! This scholarship is primarily an artistic competition—the winning student will receive a $30,000 college scholarship. And that is not all! In addition to the college scholarship, students will receive a $50,000 technology grant for their school! Each year this program has a theme—for 2013 is “My Best Day Ever...” (it is purposely meant to be open-ended). The application can be found online at <https://www.google.com/doodle4google/> Deadline: March.

The Foot Locker Scholar Athletes Program. This program gives high school students who are active in sports and in their communities, as well as outstanding students, an opportunity to win a $20,000 college scholarship. Students must be planning to attend a four-year college. Eligibility requirements include a grade point average of 3.0 or above, U.S. citizenship, and active in either high school, intramural or community sports. Winning students may choose any accredited four-year college or university to attend. Applicants will be required to answer two essay questions on what they have learned from their involvement in sports and how sports has given them leadership skills. In addition, one recommendation from a teacher, coach or other mentor is required. The deadline for this scholarship is DECEMBER 17, 2015, and the award amount is usually $20,000. For more details, visit <https://footlockerscholarathletes.com/>

Hunter Garner Scholarship. This is a scholarship competition called Project Yellow Light for high school students and college students. The competition involves producing a one minute video focused on encouraging friends to avoid distractions while driving. The scholarship is named after Hunter Garner from Fredericksburg, Virginia, who died at the age of 16 in an auto accident on June 10, 2007. Hunter's parents and sister established the scholarship to encourage more teens to develop safe driving habits. First-place winner receives a $5,000 scholarship, second-place is awarded a $2,000 scholarship, and a $1,000 scholarship goes to third place. In addition, the first-place winner will have their video distributed to 1,600 television stations throughout the nation as a Ad Council public service announcement. Videos can include one person, groups, a cartoon or a music video. Videos will be judged on how they effectively motivate young people to avoid distractions while driving. The contest opens October 31 and the deadline for this scholarship is usually in APRIL of each year, and the award amount is usually $1,000 - $5,000. For more details, visit www.projectyellowlight.com/

*The JFK Profile in Courage Essay Contest is once again being offered to United States high school students in grades 9 through 12 attending public, private, parochial, or home schools. The first place winner will receive a $10,000 prize, a second place winner will receive $1,000, and up to 5 finalists will receive $500. This contest asks students to write an essay of 1,000 words or less on “a U.S. elected official who has chosen to do what is right, rather than what is expedient.” Specifically, this year's entries must deal with the following prompt: Describe and analyze an act of political courage by a United States elected official that took place during or after 1956. Include an analysis of the obstacles, risks, and consequences associated with the act. The essay may concern an issue at the local, state, national, or international level. Essays will be accepted starting September 1, 2015, and the final submission deadline is January 6, 2016. For contest information, registration, and to submit your essay, visit the Profile in Courage Essay Contest at www.jfklibrary.org.

*The Joe Foss Institute Independence Day Scholarship Contest “Adopt A Veteran” is open to U.S citizens of all national backgrounds that are currently studying in the United States or in an American military school out of the country. Eligible contestants must be high school (9th—12th) students in a public, private, alternative, parochial school, or a home study program. The three winners will receive $5,000, $2,500, and $1,000 scholarships to the accredited U.S. college or university of their choices. Applicants must find a military veteran that they do not already know and immerse themselves in that person's life. This is NOT simply an interview. Spend time with him/her. Get to know him. Be his friend. Discover his history, his feelings then and now, how he would like to spend the rest of his life. What does he enjoy doing, talking about? How did his service affect his life? Be special to him. Make an impact on his life. Where do you find a vet that you don't know? Everyplace. Ask adult friends who they know, go to the VFW, the VA hospital, American Legion, ask your teachers, etc. Then write a 1500 word essay about your experience. Include your knowledge of Veterans Day, how you plan to observe and honor it, your own feelings about "your" vet and all veterans in general. Entries must be submitted electronically by email to Scholarship@JoeFossInstitute.org by Sunday, November 15, 2015, 11:59 p.m. MST. No exceptions will be made for late entries. For more information, visit <http://www.joefossinstitute.org>. Please email questions to: scholarshipJFI@cox.net.

NCAC [National Coalition Against Censorship] Youth Free Expression Film Contest is open to high school students age 19 and under. Students can enter the contest by submitting a film that expresses their belief in their First Amendment rights and the issue of Free Speech. All entries are judged by writers, actors, and filmmakers and evaluated based on content, artistic and technical merit, and creativity. Films can be documentaries, animation, experimental, satire, fictional narrative, or music and must be four minutes or less. Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Three winners are chosen to receive cash prizes and a trip to New York City to attend the Youth Voices Uncensored event. The first-place winner also receives a scholarship to the New York Film Academy. Since 2005, the National Coalition Against Censorship (NCAC) has been rewarding youth for their outstanding work in film. The purpose of the film contest is to encourage youth to use film creatively to express their feelings about free speech. The theme for the 12th Annual Youth Free Expression Film Contest is "THAT'S NOT FUNNY! CAN COMEDY CROSS A LINE?" The deadline for this scholarship is December 14, 2015, and the award amount is usually $250 - $5,000. For more details, visit ncac.org/project/film-contest/.

*The Shout It Out Scholarship is your chance to win $1500 for telling the world what's on your mind! The folks at Unigo want to hear what you have to say, so let them hear you loud and clear! Applicants must be: Thirteen (13) years of age or older at the time of application; legal residents of the fifty (50) United States or the District of Columbia; and, currently enrolled (or enroll no later than the fall of 2021) in an accredited post-secondary institution of higher education. This is an easy essay scholarship! All you have to do is submit an online short written response (250 words or less) for the question: "If you could say one thing to the entire world at once, what would it be and why?" The winner of the Shout It Out Scholarship will receive $1500! All applications for the Shout It Out Scholarship must be received by September 30th, 2015. To apply, go online at <https://scholarships360.org/shout-it-out-scholarship/>.

ScholarshipPoints.com offers scholarships for high school freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors. Members earn scholarship points for doing what they already do online: shopping, reading blogs, playing games, searching the web, taking surveys, and more! The more you do – the more points you earn – the more chances you have at winning a scholarship. ScholarshipPoints is free to join online at www.scholarshippoints.com. Deadline: Final day of each month.

Sorooptimist International of Raleigh's Violet Richardson Award. SIR will recognize a female between 14 and 17 years old for her volunteer efforts with an award of $500 for her and an award for $250 for the charity that she volunteers with. The Raleigh Club winner will become eligible to compete for additional awards of up to $2,500. Applications are available online at <http://www.sorooptimistraleigh.org/documents/VRAApplication-Writeable%202014> . December deadline.

*The Torch Scholarship, offered by the Better Business Bureau, recognizes students who personify high ethics as demonstrated through leadership, community service, overall personal integrity and academic excellence. Scholarship prizes of $2,000 [first place], $1,500 [second place], and $1,000 [third place] will be awarded. To be eligible, students must submit a 400-500 word essay, along with an application, transcript and letter of recommendation from a BBB Accredited Business. Completed application packets are due on November 30, 2015. For more information or to download an application, visit <https://www.bbb.org/raleigh-durham/educational-foundation/torch-scholarships/>

Unigo.com I Have A Dream Scholarship is open to students who are age 13 and older and are U.S. citizens. Students must either plan to attend college by the fall of 2021, or currently be enrolled in an accredited post-secondary institution of higher education. Applicants must submit an essay about their dreams. Essays can be up to 250 words and can include any dream, whether it's a dream about what they want for their future, or about an unusual dream. One essay will be chosen to receive a scholarship that will make their educational dreams come true. Eligible post-secondary institutions can include a college, university or trade school. Essays must be original and unpublished stories. Stories will be judged by content, creativity and originality, spelling and grammar. The deadline for this scholarship is January 31, 2016, and the award amount is usually $1,500. For more details, visit <https://www.unigo.com/scholarships/our-scholarships/i-have-a-dream-scholarship#fromscholarshipexperts>

UniversityTutor.com holds a monthly $1,000 college scholarship contest. Any student over the age of 16 is eligible and students simply need to submit a 300 word essay responding to that month's essay prompt. The winner is selected each month by UniversityTutor.com personnel. Here is a link to our scholarship contest: <http://www.universitytutor.com/scholarship-contest>

Veterans of Foreign Wars' Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program. Students compete by writing and recording a broadcast script on an annual patriotic theme. Prizes and scholarships are awarded at the local, district, state and national level. State winners receive an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. in April to tour the city, meet our nation's leaders, be honored by the VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary and receive their portion of $148,000 in national awards, the top scholarship being $30,000. The theme for 2015-2016 is: "My Vision For America" Applicants should record their reading of the draft to a CD. The recording can be no shorter than 3 minutes and no longer than 5 minutes [plus or minus 5 seconds]. Entries begin at the Post level. Once the applicant creates their essay and completes burning the audio version to a CD, they can submit their typed version, CD and the Voice of Democracy entry form to their local participating VFW Post by the November 1 deadline. For more information and to get an application, visit https://www.vfw.org/uploadedFiles/VFWorg/MY_VFW/VoiceofDemocracyEntryFormandBrochure.pdf or see Mr. Rudder in the Guidance Resource Center..

Youth Free Expression Film Contest. The National Coalition Against Censorship (NCAC) challenges young people all across the nation to think about their First Amendment rights and the issue of Free Speech. Contestants must be either living in the U.S. or its territories (but need not be citizens), and must be age 19 or younger on the day the film is submitted. Films will be judged on content, artistic and technical merit, and creativity. Judges will be drawn from a panel of renowned writers, actors, and filmmakers. The theme for the 12th Annual Youth Free Expression Film Contest is "THAT'S NOT FUNNY! CAN COMEDY CROSS A LINE?" The National Coalition Against Censorship asks teens to create a short film addressing the notions of sanitized satire and offensive humor. Your film must be four minutes or less. Entries can be videos of any kind, including documentary, animation, experimental, satire, fictional narrative, or music video. Applications must be submitted (and films uploaded to YouTube). All films must be produced in 2015 and address the contest theme. The top three winners receive cash prizes of $1,000, $500, and $250 plus a trip with a guest to New York City to attend the Youth Voices Uncensored event in the spring. All films must be uploaded to YouTube and submitted online no later than Monday, December 14, 2015. For more information, visit <http://ncac.org/update/film-contest-application/>.

Youth Volunteer Scholarship Award. BBG Corporate Communications proved the Youth Volunteer Scholarship Award to recognize and reward a student who demonstrates a passion for volunteering while maintaining a high level of academic achievement. Applicants must have completed a minimum of 50 hours of volunteer work over the past 2 years while maintaining a GPA of 3.5 or greater. Applicants must also explain in less than 1000 words why they have chosen to volunteer their time with the organization(s) that they have and how the experience has changed their lives. The scholarship is valued at $500 and the deadline is November 29, 2015. To apply go online at <http://www.studentscholarships.org/volunteer.php>.
