Pronouncing Your Name Correctly

See the list below to see which teacher is reading your name and when/where you can consult with them to make sure they have the correct pronunciation. It is YOUR responsibility to make sure the reader has the appropriate information. Not consulting with the readers may result in your name being read incorrectly at graduation.

Mr. Volkmar will be reading:

Adhikari – Bytomski

Eberly-Gutmann

Kabir-Lyn

Nam - Price

Sabu –Syed

You can find Mr. Volkmar during the month of May on:

Wednesdays and Thursdays during SMART lunch in room 2-11 (Mod 2)

Ms. Oviatt will be reading:

Cadet – Dunn

Ha-Justice

Malaver Maldonado - Myoung

Qamar - Russell

Talbott - Zuber

You can find Ms. Oviatt during the month of May on:

Tuesdays and Thursdays during SMART lunch in room 1504

Senior Bulletin

The senior bulletin covers important information such as:

- Appropriate Attire/Dress
- Ceremony Conduct
- Financial Obligations

Shoes

Ladies: Shoes that have a heel strap, flats or wedges. The shoes may be open toe.

These will not be allowed! ☹️

We will use black tape to create a strap if necessary!

Fines = No Tickets

- All fees and fines must be paid in full by 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 26. Personal checks will be accepted in the main office until May 20. After that time, fees/fines must be paid by cash, money order, or certified bank check.
- All other outstanding debts must be cleared (returned books, uniforms, equipment, etc.). The senior is responsible for having a receipt as proof of clearance if the receipt is requested.
- Seniors should check with teachers for any fines and fees. Be sure to understand that additional fines and fees could be added as late as the last days of class depending on when seniors return books and other materials to staff members.

RCC Rules

1. The convention center will not allow anyone to enter the facility with flowers in glass vases, signs, balloons, noise makers, food, drinks, or wrapped packages.
2. Due to fire code, strollers & tripods cannot block aisles and will have to be stored at the entrance.
3. During the ceremony, individuals should remain seated and should not be out of seats to take pictures or move closer to the stage. Camera tripods cannot block aisles. Guests may videotape from their seat but tripods may not be set higher than eye level or block the view of other guests.

Guests in Wheelchairs

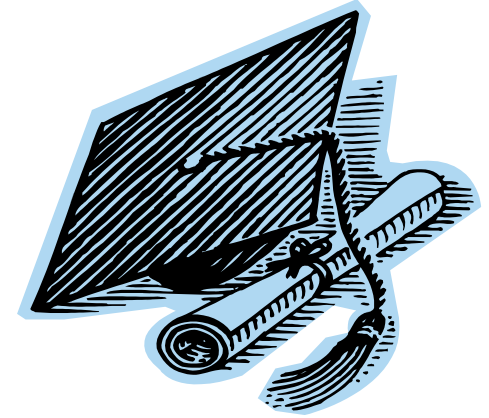

- Handicap guests are encouraged to park in parking area under the Marriott Hotel and enter the RCC from the underground parking.
- The seating at the RCC is first come, first served. There is no holding of seats.
- If you have a family member and/or guest who will be in a wheelchair, they are allowed to bring 1 other person to assist them to sit in the wheelchair seating area.

Friday, May 27

- Senior Awards Assembly! This is a special time to celebrate your success! 😊
- You will leave 2nd block a few minutes early and come to the Gym. I will have refresher of this meeting prior to the Awards Assembly, which will start at 11:00.
- Afterwards, you will be released to go to the stadium for the senior picnic.
- Early Checkout forms are included in your materials.

Caps & Gowns

Everyone needs a black cap, black gown, Columbia Blue tassel and Diploma cover.

If you haven't purchased these items or if your items are not the correct color, see Ms. Lloyd in the main office immediately.

Photography

- A professional photographer from Strawbridge Studios will take a picture of each senior during the presentation of diploma covers. Pre-pay envelopes are included with your Senior Bulletin materials today.
- Please take home an envelope to order your pictures from graduation.
- Please give this to your parents; let them decide if they want to order pictures.

Congratulations!

- Congratulations CLASS OF 2016!
- For 5 more class days we ask you to be present and on time, prepared and engaged.
- For 11 more school days we ask you to be safe and comply with PCHS/WCPSS policies.
- For a lifetime, we ask you to be a person of character...Catamount Character.
- Do well on your exams!
